

Reflection Questions

- How are you preparing for the coming of Jesus while also anticipating things like expectations, potential family tensions, or a sense of loss?
 - What spiritual tools will help you remain at peace and open to the will of God this holiday season?

- What inspires you to share peace and hope?
 - Describe someone who delivered the presence of Christ to you just as Mary did to Elizabeth during her visitation?

CIR Christmas Marathon Meeting

The Catholic in Recovery community will be available around the clock for those needing to connect with others this Christmas

- Marathon meeting starts with a candlelit general recovery meeting at 8p ET/5p PT Christmas Eve and will conclude at 5p ET/2p PT Christmas Day
- Connect any time day or night via phone or Zoom:
 - Zoom Meeting ID: 914 1234 2605
 - Passcode: 121212 | Dial in: (669) 900-6833

Sunday Mass Readings this Week

1st Reading: Zephaniah 3:14-18a

Responsorial Psalm: Isaiah 12:2-3, 4, 5-6

2nd Reading: Philippians 4:4-7

Gospel: Luke 3:10-18

Fourth Gi bXUrcZ5Xj Ybh

The hope and peace of our Lord awaits us as we approach the fourth and final Sunday of Advent. We are also moving toward the winter holidays, which can be an unusually difficult time for those impacted by addiction. Cultural expectations, heightened family tension, or a general sense of loss and loneliness may impact the way we feel and behave this time of year.

We have a chance to reflect upon the willingness of the Blessed Virgin Mary as we hear from the Gospel of Luke this Sunday. Mary's "yes" paved the way for Christ's entry into our world, revealing God's ultimate love for us and salvation from bondage. We turn to this week's Gospel Reading to witness the story of Mary's visitation to her cousin Elizabeth:

*Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste
to a town of Judah,
where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.
When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting,
the infant leaped in her womb,
and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit,
cried out in a loud voice and said,
"Blessed are you among women,
and blessed is the fruit of your womb.
And how does this happen to me,
that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears,
the infant in my womb leaped for joy.
Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled."*

Mary just learned that she was pregnant with the Messiah. As part of the angel's message, she also learned that Elizabeth was six months pregnant, and she proceeded in haste to be of service to her older relative. She does not travel for the mere sake of curiosity or to discover if the angel is really telling the truth. Instead, she sets out to uncover more of God's mystery and to do His will.

As we find freedom from the responsibility of needing to control another's addiction, we can set out to do the same. In addition to insuring immunity from the allure of old patterns, service to others helps us stay close to the true meaning of Advent and Christmas. We are surrounded by cultural attitudes which cleverly assure us that Christmas is about getting things. Underneath this belief runs a current of scarcity which reminds us of all that we do not have.

When we are committed to understanding our role in the greater context of God's kingdom, we find grace and blessings in abundance. Just as Mary came to understand her role in the story of salvation, we are awoken to our part in the same story. We might seek to pray alongside Mary as we proclaim the words, "May it be done to me according to Your word."

The more we offer ourselves to the process of recovery, the more meaning we will find in our lives. When our recovery is overlapped with the sacramental life of our faith, we get to know Jesus in an intimate and personal way.

We may be inclined to share glad tidings with those we encounter in the coming days as we turn to God for inspiration and hope. We have been offered a priceless gift of peace and freedom and find joy in the experience of sharing it with others.