As we approach the end of a calendar year, we as a Church also conclude our liturgical year before starting anew in Advent. We are in a season of darkness as days get shorter and nights get longer. Amidst this darkness, our Sunday Mass Readings follow an apocalyptic tone leading up to Advent.

This Sunday's Gospel Reading finds Jesus speaking to his disciples:

*"In those days after that tribulation
the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light,
and the stars will be falling from the sky,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

*And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory,
and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky."*
